

Python Beginner Practice Questions

1. Create a variable name and store your name in it. Print the value.
2. Create a variable age and store your age. Print it.
3. Create two variables city and country and print both.
4. Store your favorite color in a variable and print it.
5. Create three variables containing different numbers and print them on separate lines.
6. Store two numbers in variables and print their sum.
7. Store two numbers and print their difference.
8. Store two numbers and print their product.
9. Store two numbers and print their division result.
10. Store two numbers and print the quotient.
11. Store two numbers and print the remainder.
12. Store the length and width of a rectangle and calculate its area.
13. Store the side of a square and calculate its area.
14. Store marks of three subjects and calculate the total marks.
15. Store marks of five subjects and calculate the average.
16. Calculate the perimeter of a rectangle using variables.
17. Calculate the circumference of a circle (take $\pi = 3.14$).
18. Create variables for your name, age, and college, then print a short introduction.
19. Create two variables and swap their values.
20. Store the price of one notebook and calculate the cost of 10 notebooks.
21. Store the price of one pen and calculate the cost of 25 pens.
22. Store the number of days and calculate the equivalent hours.
23. Find the square of a number.
24. Find the cube of a number.
25. Find the sum of four numbers.
26. Find the average of four numbers.
27. Store your monthly pocket money and calculate the amount for 12 months.
28. Convert minutes into hours.
29. Convert hours into minutes.
30. Calculate the total number of seconds in 5 hours.